KENTUCKY RACING IS OVER

MOST SUCCESSFUL MEETING EVER HELD AT LATONIA COMES TO CLOSE.

Markie M. Wins the Final Stakes, Principal Feature of Getaway Card—R. F. Carman Scores Another Double—Exodus of Horsemen On.

Cincinnati, O., November 19.—Kentucky racing came to a close at Latonia this afternoon after one of the most successful meetings in the history of the Latonia course. Weather conditions were ideal for the sport and contributed to bring out the full quota of regulars and a large number of first-time visitors. Speculation was almost of record proportions, the small fields that contested in all the races serving as excellent mediums. The racing was interesting and thoroughly enjoyable.

Several form reversals, however, led to some fault finding. Bonnie Kelso and Arcite, both from the Carman stable, were the chief offenders. Both of these had been badly beaten in previous essays, but they showed great activity today, both in the paddock and on the track. Herbert had the mounts on both of them, took them right to the front and stayed there throughout.

Jockey C. Ross was again in the limelight and by clever riding won half the card. His success began in the opener when he brought Ed Keck home a winner. He followed it up with a victory on Wander in the third and on Markie M. in the Final Stakes, which featured the card.

R. F. Carman's double was scored in the fifth and sixth races, and he might have taken another purse but for the advantage that Sidney R. received at the start in the second race, which practically assured victory for him. Horizon, the runner-up, made a great effort, but could not overcome Sidney R.'s lead.

General Manager Hachmeister, in discussing the meeting just brought to a close, said: "Financially the meeting has been successful, but the monetary part is secondary, as we set out to restore confidence in the racing here and win back the public support. In this direction we achieved gratifying results, and we will continue in the future to reach for the highest that the sport can offer. Next season we will attract many thousands of note and the better class of horses by our liberal purse and stake offerings. I feel certain that the public is appreciative of our efforts to furnish high-class and clean racing, and that it will accord us liberal patronage."

A report was in general circulation during the afternoon that Barney Schreiber had transferred Jack Atkin to Irving H. Wheatcroft and that the latter had a clear bill of sale on the crack racer. Mr. Schreiber emphatically denied that he had sold or leased the horse to Mr. Wheatcroft. "Jack Atkin has been shipped to Juarez," said Mr. Schreiber, "and will be raced in my name and trained by Herman Brandt. There is no truth in the report that I have sold him, but he is for sale if anyone wants to pay $30,000 for him. This was the offer made me by Forrest Rose, but which deal fell through." Despite Mr. Schreiber's denial some aver that Mr. Wheatcroft has secured some sort of a contingent interest in the horse's earnings at Juarez.

F. J. Pons telegraphed today from Jacksonville that some one is circulating a report that the racing in Florida would come to a close January first. This is erroneous and Mr. Pons wants it understood that the Florida racing will not go into effect until next May at least.

Secretary Edward Maginn will leave tonight for St. Louis, where he will spend the winter.

Starter Harry Morrissey left tonight for St. Louis, where he will be joined by his wife and children. From St. Louis he will immediately proceed to resume his duties as assistant starter to Mars Cassidy. Mr. Morrissey made a lot of friends for himself by his good work here and will, in the event that Mr. Cassidy's services cannot be secured as starter here next season, succeed the official.

John Hachmeister will remain here several days straightening out affairs before going south for the winter.

John T. Ireland was forced to temporarily abandon his Juarez trip on account of the burning of some of his horses near Frankfort, Ky., while they were being shipped to join the others of his stable. Three of the youngsters in the consignment had been destroyed as a result of the burns they received, and the five others in the stable were saved by being forced to jump out of the risk of having their necks broken. Two of the colts destroyed were valued highly by their trainer. One was a half-brother to Cherryola and the other a half-brother to La Pucelle. The filly destroyed was by Star Shoot—Lady Beth. Mr. Ireland expects to get his tangled string in shape for shipment within the next ten days.

R. H. Harris, who has been acting as agent for R. F. Carman, will take over the horses of the St. James Stable and campaign them at Juarez.

Dr. Keough, former paddock judge at Latonia, is reported to have suffered a relapse and fears are entertained for his recovery. He was to have served as the paddock judge at Jacksonville this winter.

White Wolf, bought out of the Carman sale by W. F. Cisko, has been turned over to A. Bell, who will train and race him.

Walter Grater's horses were shipped to Lexington tonight to be turned out for the winter.

J. P. Ross' horses will be sent tomorrow to Lexington to go into winter quarters.

William Wallace will be raced this winter.

John McGraw, manager of the New York National Baseball Club, was among today's visitors at Latonia.

The successful three-horse combination, consisting of Wander, Markie M. and Bonnie Kelso, paid its backers $298.30 for each $2.

John McLaughlin, who presided at the auction pool stand, will leave today for his home in Lexington, where he will spend the most part of the winter, where he will spend the most part of the winter.

John Balu, who assisted him, goes to New York. Barney Schreiber changed his plans respecting Sagor, and will send that useful racer to his farm near St. Louis, where he will be turned out for the winter and have his forelegs blistered. John Powers will again have charge of him next season.

A. L. Holter has reached Jacksonville with Begone and Queen Lead, which horses will be trained by J. H. Brannon.

The horses of Darton & Brush, including Jack Nunnally and Tom Shaw, have arrived at Jacksonville.

M. J. Leonard, owner of Sporting Life and other horses, has departed for New York. He will later go to Jacksonville to spend part of the winter.

P. J. Miles and Mose Goldblatt have shipped a carload of horses by express to Jacksonville.

LOOKING FOR CUBAN CONCESSION.

H. D. Brown is on a brief trip to Cuba, where he is interested in the passage of a race track concession. It is understood that work on this plant providing the concession receives the official sanction, will be commenced immediately following the close of the Jacksonville meeting.

CANADIAN RUNNING RECORDS REVISED TO DATE

During the Canadian racing season recently ended several of the Canadian running records were reduced as a natural result of participation in the racing of horses of exceptionally high class. The distances for which new marks were made included seven-eighths of a mile, one mile, one mile and twenty yards, one mile and a quarter, one mile and three-quarters and two miles and a quarter. In addition, the records for three-quarters of a mile and one mile and three-sixteenths were equalled. It was Jack Atkin that made new marks of 1:24½ for seven-eighths of a mile and 2:04 for one mile and a quarter, besides equaling the record of 1:11½ for three-quarters of a mile. Lovetie reduced the mile mark to 1:38½ and Starbottle duplicated the feat a few days later. Spindle made the new mark of 1:41½ for one mile and twenty yards, Cruche d'Or that of 3:01 for one mile and three-quarters and Duke of Roanoke reduced the two and one-quarter miles mark to 3:57.

The Canadian records for one mile and seventy yards, one mile and a sixteenth and two miles and a sixteenth remain the American marks for those distances. The full list of the Canadian records revised to date is as follows:

BUBBLING WATER AGAIN IN FORM.

Speedy Daughter of Colonel Wheeler and Shasta Water Wins Oakland Feature.

San Francisco, Cal., November 19.—Bubbling Water showed that she has regained her brilliant form of last season by winning the Volante Handicap in a canter at Oakland today. The filly met some of the best horses on the coast and won by a wide margin. She was ridden by jockey Chester Krum and leading all the way to beat Chester Krum and Arasee in fast time. Arasee was pinched off at the start and suffered interference. With better racing luck he doubtless would have been second.

The attendance was large and eighteen layers were kept busy. Big Stick, making his first appearance, was not particularly favored for the sprint race that was third on the card, but the Linnell gelding won in a drive with Metropolis. Garner rode the first three winners and Archibald the last three.

C. B. Clow and Harry Mack will leave tonight for Juarez with their horses. Jockeys Manders and Anderson will accompany their employers.

Peter Clark, who will be the official form chart caller at Juarez, was married today to Miss Jennie Woodworth, and left this evening for the Mexican track.

The string of R. J. Mackenzie arrived today from Toronto. The string includes Port Johnson, Campbell, Eldin Bean, Fountain Square, Flying Footsteps, Melton Street, Don Antonio, Michael Angelo, Right Smart, Rossmore and Peccavi. The General Armstrong, Direct and Kerry Gow, owned by Mr. Mackenzie, were turned out in California all summer and have now rejoined the stable.

Jockey W. Knapp, who has been riding at Latonia, telegraphed he would be here shortly.

Ossabar is again in the stable of A. G. Blakeley. "Chicago" O'Brien re-purchased the filly from Early Wright, who claimed her out of a race Thursday.

C. H. Pettigill was in the stand today and assumed his position as associate judge. He was detained in New York by the illness of his wife and arrived only last night.

A former California jockey, is now cutting quite a figure on the turf in that country. Piggett has a big stable in training for a rich subject of the czar, and also rides occasionally. Piggett has been in Russia six years, and according to report, speaks the language like a native. Piggett began riding at the old Bay District track for Henry Walsh, trainer of the Palo Alto Stable, and afterwards rode for Ed Corrigan at Ingleside. Piggett intends to remain in Russia for the rest of his life.

C. L. HARRISON'S THOROUGHBREDS.

Louisville, Ky., November 19.—C. L. Harrison's thoroughbred possessions now consist of some yearlings and the noted Waldo, which has not raced since 1909, as a two-year-old. He went wrong in his Kentucky Derby preparation, and when trainer Colston succeeded in rounding him to racing edge at Saratoga again went lame before he could race. From all accounts he is doing well running out at John D. Carr's farm near Lexington, and in trainer Colston's opinion he will race as a four-year-old. Just who will train him in 1911 has not been announced. Raleigh Colston is now training and racing a string of his own, as his old employer, Fred A. Forsythe, has retired from racing.

FALL MEETINGS AT AN END.

With the closing of the Latonia and Jamestown meetings yesterday the fall season of American racing came to an end. From now until spring the sport will flourish on the winter tracks at Oakland, Cal., Juarez, Mex., Jacksonville, Fla., Pensacola, Fla., and Tampa, Fla. The Oakland meeting is already in full swing, having opened auspiciously a week ago. On Thursday next (Thanksgiving Day) the Juarez, Jacksonville and Pensacola meetings will begin, all with rosy prospects. The outlook is for a more brilliant winter racing season than was ever before known in this country. The meeting at Tampa will open January 2, following the close of the Pensacola meeting.

INTEREST AT EL PASO IS KEEN.

Best Element of City's Society Planning to Patronize Winter Meeting at Juarez.

El Paso, Tex., November 19.—It is gratifying to the management of the Jockey Club Juarez to note the interest taken by local people at this time in the coming meeting at Juarez track as attested by their keen desire to reserve grandstand boxes for the season and the great number of visitors at the track daily. The majority of the boxes have been sold to the leading society people of El Paso and Thursday next will witness the most brilliant gathering ever seen at a track in the southwest. The management has spared no expense in improving the grandstand, stables and grounds. Everything is resplendent in new paint and the stables have been treated to a coat of whitewash. The inner rail has been painted white for the complete circuit of the track, which has done much to relieve the somber color of the background and will enable racegoers to distinguish the colors of the horses more clearly and readily than heretofore.

The horses are all going along well, and while there have been no startling work trials thus far, when the racers are given their final trials there will doubtless be some fast moves. The advance guard of regulars has begun to put in an appearance, a carload arriving today from Salt Lake City, while another leaves San Antonio tonight. The Latonia contingent is expected by Tuesday, and from the manner in which the hotels and rooming houses are filling, it is evident that the coming meeting is the attraction which will bring here the largest number of strangers seen in El Paso in many seasons.

Word was received today that a carload of horses is en route to Juarez from the Oakland track.

ROUND THE WORLD'S HALF-SISTER.

Lexington, Ky., November 19.—Of the few unbroken thoroughbred yearlings in Kentucky the one most talked about by horsemen in this vicinity is probably the half-sister to Col. W. E. Applegate's speed marvel, Round the World. This yearling is a bay filly by the imported stallion, Monsieur de L'Orme (son of Orme and Lily Asphodel, by Hampton), dam Nellie Bly, by Stratford, and she is owned by William Steele, a sturdy Scotch horseman who for so many years was in charge of the racing establishment of the late A. J. Cassatt in Pennsylvania and who is now the master of Horse Haven Stud, having leased that famous farm from the Hardy Durham estate after it was given up by Perry Belmont something more than two years ago.

While Mr. Steele was in the employ of Mr. Cassatt, the famous railroad magnate bought Maudina, a daughter of imported Australian and the famous imported mare Maud (dam of Alarm, by Stockwell), Maudina, in addition to being the dam of such horses as Marauder, Maudlin, Empress, Catoclin, Oden, Cloverbrook, Piccolo, Galway, Elizabeth, threw Maunee, by Vauxhall, likewise a stake winner. Maunee, as the property of Mr. Cassatt, foaled Nellie Bly, Musamee, Madeline and Bayard II. Mr. Steele raised and broke both Maunee and Nellie Bly. The latter was sold as a yearling to E. McElmeel, and in his colors she won many races in the early nineties. She passed to David Gideon and went to the stud at his place at Holmdel, N. J. She produced there the winners Nedra, Blythness, Nellie Russell and Globe Runner, was purchased by Col. Milton Young and at McGrathiana Stud dropped Frieze and Round the World.

At the dispersal of the McGrathiana Stud in October 1908, Mr. Steele bought Nellie Bly, then in foal to Monsieur de L'Orme, for $100 and advised W. E. Young, who was representing Col. W. E. Applegate at the sale, to buy her weanling, the chestnut filly by Lackford, now so widely known because of her racing achievements this year under the name Round the World, and which Mr. Young bought for $100.

Mr. Steele took Nellie Bly to Horse Haven and there in May 1909, she foaled in the same barn where Fitz Herbert and Dalmatian first saw the light of day, this muscular, straight-legged, good-looking filly that local horsemen think well of.

Red River, Judge Monck, Sou, Princelike and J. H. Patterson are among the horses George R. Chinn has in training at Jacksonville.

JAMESTOWN MEETING ENDS

CLOSE OF RACING AT VIRGINIA TRACK WINDS UP EASTERN SEASON.

Norfolk Venture Successful and Promises Well for Future—Horsemen Scattering in Various Directions, Principally to Jacksonville.

Norfolk, Va., November 19.—Today marked the end of the fall meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club and the closing of the racing season in the east. With the ringing down of the curtain came a scattering of horsemen in all directions. A majority of the stables will leave for Jacksonville tomorrow, when a sixteen-car special will leave over one of the roads running from here to Florida. The present meeting was the most successful ever held at Norfolk and next year promises even better. The receipts of the track were set aside today for the benefit of St. Vincent's Hospital. The horsemen did their share by donating the purse added to the opening race. The program was made up of eight races, one of which was over the hurdles. The conditions of one of the other races called for starters to be owned by members of the Norfolk Hunt Club. Favorites won a majority of the purses and most of the finishes were close enough to prove interesting. The feature race went to Blackford, which beat Sandrian a couple of lengths. The purse that was donated to the hospital fund was won by David Dunlop's Bendaga.

R. E. Watkins ships Blackford, Cliff Edge and Lad of Langden back to Sheepshead Bay tomorrow. He said Goldiecat to E. W. Moore, Thrifty to H. Penny and Woolcata to J. McLaughlin, Jr., this morning.

Frank J. Bryan, who officiated as steward representing the Jockey Club, left tonight for New York. William P. Riggs returned to Baltimore, while Fred W. Gerhardt and starter A. B. Dade will leave for Jacksonville tomorrow morning.

G. W. Scott has decided to rest Martin W. Littleton and J. H. Houghton during the winter and the pair will be shipped from here to Dallas, Tex., where Mr. Scott owns a farm. "The next time they come to the races will be at Tom's next spring," said Mr. Scott this afternoon. The latter has several yearlings at his farm and he will ship the best of them north next year.

A. G. Weston, who will train a public stable at Jacksonville this winter, has arranged to handle Mesoma, Semi-quaver and Abundant for R. T. Wilson, Jr. Tom Healey will also ship about six of the Wilson yearlings to Mr. Weston after he gets things straightened out at Belmont Park.

Robert Walden shipped the stable he was racing here back to his farm at Middleburg, Md., where they will go into winter quarters. "I have a filly by Chilton," said Mr. Walden, "that is the fastest thing I ever broke, and unless she is a counterfeit, I believe that she will be the winner of the Clabbaugh Memorial at Pimlico next year."

William and J. W. Garth will ship their stables to Charlottesville, Va. William Garth has decided not to race any horses this winter. The firing irons will be applied to the ankles of Supervisor, the two-year-old half-brother to Superstition.

Ernest Hall will leave for Jacksonville with the apprentice jockey, Dunn, who will do the lightweight riding for John W. Schorr this winter.

Bob Levy announced that he would apply for dates to follow the closing of the meeting at Jacksonville next spring. Tom Healey and James Rowe both announced before leaving here that they would ship part of their stables here next spring.

Two horses were claimed yesterday. W. Brooks, owner of Hazelthorpe, took Neoskalecta for $500, and J. W. Garth claimed Henry Munro from S. Billings for $800.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., November 19.—Manager Charles F. Hill of the Kingston Farm is in position to place Clarence H. Mackay may decide to devote those splendid acres to the raising of hackney horses and polo ponies. The transfer of the stallions Meddler and Sanders and a band of splendid thoroughbred mares and weanlings to the Harns Fitzhames, Clermont, France, leaves Kingston Farm virtually unoccupied by horses and since Mr. Mackay has it under lease for another five years, dating from the first of the present month, he must put it to use as a stock breeding establishment, for under the terms of his contract he cannot cultivate the farm and the other nine equine occupants of the place are made up of riding and driving horses.

"I have had no definite instructions from Mr. Mackay as to his plans for Kingston Farm," said Manager Hill a day or two ago, "but I am of the opinion that it is altogether likely that he will send down some of the hackneys and polo ponies from Roslyn in New Jersey. It is true that the devotion of such land as this to the breeding of hackneys and polo ponies would be somewhat expensive, but Mr. Mackay has it on his hands and I do not think he is disposed to let it remain idle. It is not likely that he will devote it again to the breeding of thoroughbreds. Had that been his intention he would hardly have shipped Meddler and his mares to France. I intend to make a public season with Banastar next spring. This son of Farandole and Blessing has some good representatives on the turf, the most serviceable of which is Hanbridge."

The statement that Sis Olee died at Kingston Farm was incorrect. Sis Olee was the property of Dr. P. H. Molloy and died of colic at his place on Anglin avenue. She was never at Kingston Farm except when she was mated with Banastar. She left a weanling colt, the property of Dr. Molloy, by Banastar.

CLAIM DERBY WINNER INTERFERED WITH.

Lexington, Ky., November 19.—According to letters and newspaper clippings received here this week from the City of Mexico, Alexander Amor has made the claim that his Sorcerer colt, Gore, which, ridden by Amor himself, finished second to Star Eyes, in the Mexican Derby, was interfered with by the winner. No protest of the payment of the stakes was made, but Amor has asserted that he will prove the claim by taking the measure of Star Eyes at the next meeting of the two colts. In the Derby Star Eyes and Gore each carried 126 pounds, and the margin of the winner at the finish was only half a length.

Every one of the eleven starters in the Derby was bred in Kentucky. They were for the greater part purchased privately by their present owners either from their breeders or from others who had purchased them as weanlings or yearlings with the intention of training and racing them in this country.
